Because of her unselfish devotion, sympathetic understanding of student problems, cheery smile, and willing hands, we dedicate to

MISS LILLIAN WINGO
this our annual of 1937

Foreword

BY WORD and picture we have tried to preserve herein vivid associations of our years together at Blackstone College. In the years which may come, dear Reader, if you turn these pages out of interest and appreciation, or, what is better, as a former student of old "B. C. G." and memories are revived so that you again live the past, we shall be happily repaid.

In Memoriam

N. P. ANGLE

THERE is perhaps no one who will be more greatly missed both for his innumerable services to his community and our college and for his outstanding character and friendship.

Mr. Angle was a public spirited citizen and was liberal in using his ability for the good of his fellow-man and for the advancement of the program of the Church. He was kind-hearted and delighted to entertain in his home friends who came that way. It was a pleasure to know him and to come in contact with his cordial and inspiring character. The ACORN offers this simple tribute of love and esteem to his memory.

Alma Mater

Oh dear Blackstone, Alma Mater,
We thy daughters come to thee,
Seeking friends that make us nobler,
Seeking truth that makes us free,
Seeking courage, faith and wisdom,
And the strength to triumph wrong,
Hear, oh, hear us, loving mother,
As we lift to thee our song!

Chorus

Guide, oh guide us, mother dear!
May we ever feel thee near,
May thy daughters live and love
And grow forever, mother dear,
Oh—Oh Blackstone, here's to thee,
Here's to truth that makes us free,
Here's to fame and praise and honor,
And a student's love for thee!

Hail—oh Blackstone, Alma Mater,
We with grateful hearts do sing,
For we called and thou didst answer,
Did thy treasures to us bring,
Did unfold to us the mysteries
Both of books and friendships true;
Now thy daughters answer gladly,
Here's our love, Blackstone, to you!

Oh—Oh Blackstone, Alma Mater!
As we sing our parting lay,
Life's work calls; we dare not linger,
Though with thee, we fain would stay.
Parting comes, but we'll remember
These our happy college days,
And be true to thee, dear mother,
Guide us with thy love, we pray.

"John, I'm sure I heard a mouse squeaking somewhere."

"Well, what do you want me to do? Go oil it?"

Millicent: My ancestry dates back to before the days of Charlemagne. How old is your family?

Claudine: I really can't say. You see, all our family records were lost in the flood.

Visitor: What make is your boy friend's new car?

Rose Manning (rather vague about such things): I think I heard him say it was a wow.

Little Genevieve had gone to bring in the kittens. Her father, hearing a shrill cry, called, "Don't hurt the kittens, Genevieve."

"Oh, no!" said Genevieve. "I'm carrying them very carefully by their stems."

Gert: Can a person be punished for something he hasn't done?

Miss Davis: No, that wouldn't be justice.

Gert: Well, I haven't done my homework.

An oyster met an oyster,
And they were oysters two;
Two oysters met two oysters,
And they were oysters, too;
Four oysters met a pint of milk,
And they were oyster stew.

Russell: Every time I kiss you it makes me a better man.
Jane: Well, you needn't try to get to Heaven in one night.

Buck: Do you want to marry a one-eyed fellow?
Lee: No. Why?
Buck: Then you had better let me carry the umbrella.

O'Leary: I ain't got no pencil!
Miss Marshall (shocked at her expression): Oh, Helen, I have no pencil!
O'Leary: You ain't either? Well, we're both in the same fix.

McDonald: Just think! School has been going on for four weeks now.
Harris: Gee, it seems like a month to me!

Mims: Stick to team work, girls! Remember the banana: every time it leaves the bunch it gets skinned.

Scotty (very triumphantly): I just received five dollars for my latest book, "Call of the Lure."

Ann: And who was the victim?
Scotty: The express company; they lost it.

Gert: I'd like to donate my last picture to a charitable cause.
Miss Davis: Why not an institution for the blind?

Hunt: Darling, they say that people who live together get to look alike.

Allen: Maybe I don't want to marry you after all."

"Dear Miss Mary McClung Read: Please do not hit our Mona. We never do it at home except in self-defense.

Mr. and Mrs Teets."

Blackburn (to Aggie): Aggie, if you are playing automobile, I wish you would run down to the canteen and get me a coca cola.

Aggie: I'm awfully sorry, but I'm all out of gasoline.

"Girls," said Mrs. Nelson, "in writing themes you should not attempt any flights of fancy; simply be yourselves and write what is in you."

As a result Hester wrote the following: "We should not attempt any flights of fancy, but simply write what is in us. In me there is my stummick, my heart, my lungs, my liver, one coca cola, five ham sandwiches, two butterscotch pies, and my dinner."

"Mrs. Freeman," complained Frannie Williams, "I don't feel very well."

"That's too bad, dear," said Mrs. Freeman very sympathetically. "Where do you feel worst?"

"In school, Mrs. Freeman."

As Henrich took the stage to sing, Mary Carroll was frantic about Miss Bothne's gesticulations with her baton.

"Why is Miss Bothne shaking her stick at Henrich?" demanded Carroll very indignantly.

"Sh-h! She's not shaking her stick at her."

But Carroll wasn't convinced. "Then why is she yelling so loud?"

A COLLEGE ANNUAL requires the undivided interest and attention of Editor, Business Manager and Publisher if it is to present that much desired appearance of Character.

¶ For that reason, Everett Wadley Company handles only a limited number of annuals each year—a limited number so as to permit proper service.

¶ Everett Wadley Company of Richmond, Virginia, alone was responsible to the Staff of THE ACORN for 1937 for the correct manufacture of THE ACORN.
